

Men's Club Reunion To Draw 200

Old-Time L.G. Club To Honor David W. Bird

A reunion of the L.G. Men's Club has been scheduled for noon Friday, August 24 at Michael's.

The Club, one of Lemon Grove's oldest and most respected, ceased meeting several years ago when the economic outlook of the business community started taking on a bleak appearance.

The club, which numbers several thousand members on its roster, historically met at noon every Friday to discuss informally topics of the day. Everyone who attended any meeting was then-and-there-voted into the club as a member. There was no initiation fee, no dues, and no responsibilities, except loyalty to the Lemon Grove community. About 200 persons are expected to attend.

Early day officials of the club included George Casteel, Jim Pearce and Tony Sonka. A popular ritual was a "fining" session in which each member who was absent for one meeting or more would have a chance to plead his case. Inevitably, a 25 cent fine was levied regardless of the excuse or whether the member missed one week or three years.

The reunion program will honor David W. Bird, county supervisor. A panel of experts will provide a panel discussion on what the economic future of Lemon Grove's business community offers. Panelists include George W. Sears, senior vice president of the First National Bank; John "Don" Swinney, vice president and controller of the U.S. National Bank; and Charles Victory, vice president of the Bank of America. Following this, a member of the Sheriff's Dept. will explain a new chain-reaction program for apprehending bad-check passers in this area.

All men are invited to attend whether they are members or not. Luncheon charge is $1.50.

Lions To Hear S.D. Policeman

The L.G. Lions Club will hold its weekly meeting at the El Morocco Thursday at 7 p.m. The program will be presented by Officer Bob Travino of the San Diego Police Dept., and the subject is "Mexican Border Relations."

The local Lions will have their annual family beach party Sunday across from The Bahia at Mission Bay.

Boating, water skiing and swimming will be on the program.

Welcome Mat Always Out

It was an accommodating 5-year-old youngster who answered a knock on the door Sunday shortly after 7 a.m. His mom and pop were sleeping but he asked the three youths who had knocked to come in.

Master Perry, of 9043 Davenrich, Spring Valley, then stood helplessly by while the youths deftly removed the wallet from the sleeping papa's pants. The wallet contained $40.

All was not lost, however, because Master Perry was able to describe the marauders enough for the sheriff's dept. to trace them down. Three juveniles were apprehended and the money restored.

Hole Out Of Past Appears In Lemon Grove Backyard

When a 30-40 feet deep hole made a sudden appearance at 1621 Colfax dr. on Wednesday of last week, the sheriffs, the fire department and neighbors tried to figure out what it was. It took officials of the Helix Irrigation District to provide the answer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hobart, occupants of the home were away on vacation when the hole made its debut. Their son, Bill, was taking care of the place and let the sprinkler run a long time on the back lawn. The hole, about three feet in diameter, made itself known when the thin layer of turf and earth over it, collapsed suddenly into its depths. A neighbor, Mrs. Paul Jones said the splashy, crashy sound could be heard far away. Bill Hobart called the sheriffs, who did not know what the hole was.

Others peered into the abyss, careful not to slip. Was it an old, abandoned well at which early pioneers in Lemon Grove's romantic history had slaked their thirst; had fresh, cool water from it nourished early groves and crops?

On Saturday, irrigation district men came out for a look-see. It was up to them to determine the significance of the spot.

Well? Said officials: "We find that it is an old cesspool."

Grove Man Aide To Italian Minister For State Dept.

Dr. Frank Gigliotti of 3785, Riviera dr., L.G. returned last week from five weeks in Washington where he served as consultant for His Excellency Joseph Lupis, Italian deputy foreign minister.

Lupis's rank is equal to that of the U.S. Undersecretary of State, Gigliotti said. Gigliotti was invited to Washington by the State Department and Deputy Lupis, he said.

Gigliotti said that he became acquainted with Lupis when he came to the U.S. as a political refugee during the Mussolini regime. He fought Mussolini from America 20 years, four of these years he served with Gigliotti in the Office of Strategic Services.

When Italy was liberated Lupis returned and worked in government. He helped form the present coalition government with President Signi as head of State. President Signi appointed Lupis to his present post.

Lupis, Gigliotti said, is Past Deputy Grand Master of Masons in Sicily. Lupis addressed 200 persons at the Scottish Rite Temple in Washington under the auspices of the Supreme Council. Judge Luther Smith,

FINAL POLIO SHOTS BEFORE SCHOOL SET

The final polio shots to be held before the opening of school in this area by the San Diego Department of Public Health will be held from 6-8 p.m. on Mon., Aug. 27 at O'Farrell Junior High School in Encanto and at the Girl's Cottage at the Youth Center, 9440 University ave., La Mesa.

The fire department certainly can't disapprove after someone gets a permit, burns within legal hours and keeps the fire under control, assistant chief Dixon said this week. Therefore when an alarm came in at 7:09 p.m. on Aug. 9, firemen went to the home of George Sprague at 6665 MacArthur dr., saw that everything was okay and turned around and came back to the station.

Dixon said Sprague went through the procedure of obtaining a fire permit and was burning in legal hours. A neighbor saw the smoke and thought the blaze was out of control.

At 10:50 p.m. on Aug. 14, a grass fire by the freeway on Waite dr. on State of California property put up some smoke but did no damage, firemen said. Cause was determined.

The L.G. Fire Department made two first-aid runs during the fire week. On Aug. 13 a unit responded at 6:50 a.m. to a call from the home of Dominick Patitucci of 7097 Central ave., who had fallen stricken in his garden where he was working early in the morning. Assistant chief Dixon said the Grovan already was dead from a heart attack on arrival of firemen.

Receiving a call from the sheriff's department at 2:30 a.m. on Aug. 9, firemen went to the home of Lois Smith, 7578 San Miguel st., who had suffered an asthmatic attack, firemen said.

The DIMMER VIEW by MAX GOODWIN

Taxes Stifle Small Businesses

The community of small business firms in the San Diego area is being lessened as time passes and a major cause is taxes.

Take as an example the little four-employee firm Crown Drive In, a restaurant on Broadway near Sweetwater that was operated, until recently by a sincere, honest businessman named Sid Zolot.

Sid worked long, hard hours building up the business and turned his available cash into improving the appearance of the place. He hired additional help as conditions permitted and while the present wasn't too auspicious, the future seemed to be bright for Sid.

He found that no matter how hard he worked he could never quite gather together enough funds to meet his living expenses and his taxes too. Recently, after five years of effort, the problem looked impossible for him to solve. He sold his equity for money to pay his tax debt. Being a middle-aged man he found difficulty in getting a job of any kind.

He had paid State Unemployment Insurance funds for his employees for five years, and had paid into the fund as an employee himself for more than 12 years prior to that so he applied to the State Department of Employment for relief. He found that he was ineligible for aid. Most employers are likewise ineligible unless they go through a complicated and costly procedure by which they maintain eligibility in the S.U.I. program. Few do, the State Employment Dept. told us.

It was a sad blow for this small-business man. The weight of taxes, including those designed to give relief to persons without employment, had swamped him.

Yes, as a payer of those taxes for 17 years he was shocked to discover that there was no relief available for him!

Sheriff's Citation Plan To Cut Number Of Arrests; Reduce Costs

So now we have a sheriff who wants to keep lawbreakers out of jail.

Not just any old lawbreaker, though. Criminals, he wants behind bars, but he is distressed by the fact that many citizens, guilty of misdemeanor charges, must be put in the pokey by his men. He refers to such wrongdoing as trespassing, discharging firearms in close proximity to homes, overnight camping on a beach, and the like.

Sheriff Elmer Jansen is asking the Board of Supervisors for an ordinance enabling his officers to issue appearance citations to violators of county laws, rather than arresting them.

"Physical arrest accomplishes very little in cases of carelessness by people who are not really criminals," Jansen said. The use of citations for some misdemeanors would save the county time and expense in bringing violators into the County Jail and the expense of housing them while awaiting court action, Jansen pointed out.

Arrest gives a person a criminal record and a citation does not. If a person failed to appear, a warrant would be issued for his arrest, Jansen said.

County officers now use citations for traffic violations. An Alcoholic Beverage Control ruling permits citations for violations by tavern operators rather than arrest so his request has some precedence, he says.

Arrest imposes a hardship on the arrested person's family and often costs him his job. Citation for court appearance at

Ex-Marine New Manager At L.G. McMahan's Store

Stratten

A former Marine Corps Intelligence and Security Division Sergeant who fell in love with the San Diego area while stationed at Camp Pendleton, became the new manager of McMahan's Furniture Store in Lemon Grove on Aug. 1.

Dale K. Van Stratten, a native of Omaha, Neb., comes here from managing the big McMahan's store in Clairemont. Prior to that, he got started with the firm at the El Cajon store.

Right now McMahan's in Lemon Grove, located at 7696 Broadway, is in the middle of the August clearance sale. "We've made price reductions in floor models and samples to make room for new merchandise," Stratten said.

The spacious furniture store with its luxurious-looking interior contains a great variety of big and small things in all price ranges, Stratten explained. "We invite people to come in and browse to their heart's content without being pestered by a salesman till they want to be," Stratten said this week.

A unique item carried by McMahan's is a tiny Japanese television set. "It's probably the smallest TV set ever made," a McMahan salesman pointed out.

Ex-Marine Stratten is married. He and his wife, Kay live with their two-year-old girl in El Cajon Valley.

WHAT'S DOING

As you may have heard or read, the next issue of the telephone directory will be changed entirely to all-numbers.

Progressively, as listings are being re-set in the directory — at the rate of about one-third of the book each month — they are being given out by the information operators as all-numeral numbers. This does not affect your telephone service in any way since the numbers can be dialed either way. The change simply substitutes numbers for the letters associated with each dial hole; HO becomes 46 for example.

For the businessman it is not necessary to make a sudden, wholesale change of stationery and advertising pieces. However, if he should be planning to reprint these items the all-numeral number corresponding to his present "prefix plus" number should be substituted.

We are trying to make this change, which is necessary to increase the available supply of telephone numbers in the country, with as little inconvenience to our customers as possible.

Most places you go, chances are you won't be very far from a public telephone. For your convenience, telephone people try to locate them where you're most apt to want and need them.

In many places you'll find drive-up booths that let you telephone without getting out of your car. You may also see some of the new walk-up booths in outdoor locations where a phone would be handy but there's not enough space for a conventional booth.

All these public telephones are another way we try to make your phone service most convenient for you, wherever you may be.

A new telephone handset for people with impaired hearing looks like this. A tiny control in the center, right under their fingers, lets them adjust the loudness of incoming voices to the best listening level.

This new volume-control handset comes in color and fits any modern phone—desk set, Princess, wall phone, even the Call Director business telephone.

Mrs. Warner Appointed To State Demo. Group

Mrs. Warner

Mrs. H. J. Warner of 7815 Mt. Vernon street, Lemon Grove was one of five appointees named to the Democratic State Central Committee by Armando M. Rodriguez, Democratic candidate in the 77th Assembly District.

A member of the Lemon Grove Democratic Club since it was first organized, Mrs. Warner has been its president since 1956.

Mrs. Warner has been a member of the Lemon Grove Women's Club since 1947, serving for several years on its board of directors. She has been active with the Delphin Society for six years.

The four other appointees are Steven Gillis, San Diego; Cay Jurado, National City; Ray Parra, San Ysidro; and Lowell Blankfort, Chula Vista.

Blankfort is co-publisher of newspapers in Chula Vista, National City and Imperial Beach, all of which are strongly Democratic.

Few young men realize what they are doing when a sweet young thing murmurs the magical word, "Yes."

Gillman, Faulkner Strike Up 'Feud'

SAN DIEGO, (SPCL)—Tempers, among other things, are expected to flare Saturday night when the San Diego Chargers entertain the Denver Broncos at Balboa Stadium. Kick-off time is 8 o'clock. For Jack (Faulkner) is back and with him will be six former Chargers, anxious to make their presence felt.

How well the pupil, Denver Head Coach and General Manager Faulkner, learned from the master, Charger Head Coach and General Manager Sid Gillman, will be known Saturday. For 13 years, at such places as Miami of Ohio, Cincinnati, the Los Angeles Rams and two years with the Chargers, Faulkner was a Gillman assistant. During the off-season, he answered the call of Denver President Calvin Kunkin to attempt to put some kick in to the Denver Bronco.

At the same time, Gillman would not enjoy being humbled by his former assistant. "I just hope I didn't teach him too well," muses the Charger head man.

The Chargers will take the field Saturday with the AFL's only undefeated pre-season record. For after nine games (the Chargers blanked the Dallas Texans, 17-0, in the first annual San Diego Union-Eveing Tribune charity game last Saturday), the Chargers are 9-0. The Broncos will be out to even up their 1962 record at 1-1, after dropping a close decision to the AFL champion Houston Oilers, 17-33, at Atlanta, Ga., last Friday. However, Denver's showing is quite impressive when it is considered that 12 of Houston's points came on George Blanda field goals.

'Martinez Cafe' Opens By Theatre

The cafe by the Grove Theatre in Lemon Grove has reopened under new management.

It is now called "Martinez Cafe" and Saturnino Martinez and his wife, Concepcion are running it with their daughter, Virginia Marie.

Martinez Cafe is staying open seven days a week from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mexican and American food is the fare. Breakfast, lunch and supper are being served. Short orders and small dinners are the style.

L. G. Little Leaguers Out Of County Tourney
The Lemon Grove Little Leaguers, long since eliminated from playoffs in the National Little League Tournament were bounced out of another one—the county-wide tourney—on Aug. 13 when the L.G. Orioles lost 4-3 against Sweetwater Little Leaguers.

The game was played at the L.G. field behind Monterey Heights Elementary school.

The District 42 playoffs continued on Tuesday of this week when Southeastern played Spring Valley. On Wednesday Sweetwater played the winner of this game.

Lemon Grove little leaguers will do no more playing this season, a league spokesman reported lamentably.

Colt League News

HELIX VIEW BEAT 8-5 IN PLAYOFFS

In the Regional Colt League playoffs this past week, the Mt. Helix View Colt League was finally nosed out after making a good showing. On Sunday in their game with Riverside, the local nine was defeated 8 to 5. Winning pitcher was Brad Deason and the loser, Dave Elston.

On Aug. 8 in the game between Helix Vista and Santa Ana, Helix won by 11 to 3, with Ron Thomas the winner on the mound. Young Thomas has been a consistent mound winner during and since his Little League days.

Helix View played two games on Saturday, losing the first to Riverside by 5 to 1. In the second game, Helix View took it from El Cajon by 12 to 6. That put El Cajon out of the running.

With the defeat of Helix View the undefeated Riverside team will play in the Division playoffs this week at Ontario, Calif. The winner of that contest will go on to play at the Colt League World Series in Texas.

Southern Baptist Sets 20th Anniversary

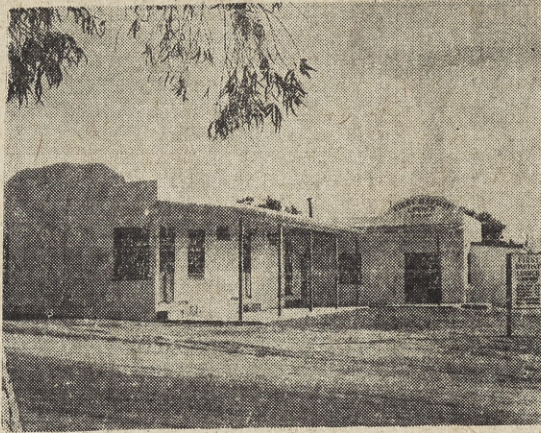

The Lemon Grove Southern Baptist Church will celebrate its 20th anniversary this Sunday. The church first existed on the present site of the L.G. Fire Station.

The anniversary will be an all-day affair beginning with Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., and morning worship at 10:45 a.m. At 1 p.m. the congregation will have a basket dinner and at 2:30 p.m. a special program is slated. Former pastors, members and friends will be at the event, the church announced, saying that all such people not yet planning to come are invited. The church was established on Aug. 12, 1942 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Blaine. It was moved to the VFW Hall in October of the same year. In 1944 the first church building was erected; it is now part of the fire station.

In 1949 the Fellowship Center on Imperial ave. was put up and in 1954 the Southern Baptist Church purchased the Seventh Day Adventist Church which serves as the present-day sanctuary. Plans now are underway to move the church again and to start a new building program.

FIRST EDIFICE — This structure, which now serves as part of the L. G. fire station was the first building the Southern Baptist Church erected in 1944.

PRESENT CENTER — This Imperial avenue building is the Fellowship Hall of the Southern Baptist Church of L. G. It was constructed in 1949. Across the street from it is the church's sanctuary.

TRINITY MINISTERS BACK HOME

The church reported they're looking rested and well-tanned. Rev. Baxter and his wife just returned with 19 senior highs whom they supervised on a work project for the church in Northern California.

The Vacation Bible school at Trinity will present its closing program, including an exhibit of work by the attending children on Aug. 17 at 7 p.m. School director Lawler reported that attendance had been well over 125 daily at the sessions. Maps, mosaics, pictures, booklets and other things were made and Bible verse and stories learned about Biblical characters and places.

Director Lawler said that the vacation school fulfilled its goal of purchasing rabbits through children's donations to help a missionary school for boys in Africa, get started on its project of breeding a better stock of rabbits.

Barbecued fish will be the feature of an Aug. 18 swim party at the Robert Hamman home for members of the Clipper—a group for couples. The church said new couples at the church are invited to attend.

The Windjammers—a group for young couples—will officially open the church library to the public on Sun. Aug. 19 at the coffee hour between services. They will be in charge of the library on Sundays for convenience of those attending church, it was announced.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

First of all, I want you to know that I have opposed the Junior College Bond Issue on two occasions because of the location. Now, we are to have a third go at the same issue.

Since reading the front page story in the Lemon Grove Review July 19, I am beginning to wonder, maybe the Board is a devoted group who are trying to serve the interest of the people.

In the interest of fair play, centralization and judicious use of the Districts tax money, I hereby ask you to:

1. Publish a map of our District's boundaries.
2. Show pertinent points on the map such as:
 - a. Proposed location of Junior College
 - b. Location of present Junior College
3. Population of District and where and how much District will grow in the next 25 years.
4. Any other information important to the Taxpayers.

This is a large District and we are all not as fortunate as some of the Chamber of Commerce and Advisory committees to be present at your meetings, so that a great medium to reach us all is the newspaper.

Uncanny as it may seem, the $7,500,000 Bond Issue has become a controversy on the local level, yet our National Government gives away millions with no hope of anything in return. I want you to know that I understand how much we need Junior Colleges, with the tremendous pressure to push them through high school and ever increasing standards set by Colleges and Universities, we here can expect much in return, BUT remember there are those among us that a picture is worth a million words.

Respectfully,
R. D. Wilder

The DIMMER VIEW

a convenient time would answer the requirements of law and justice just the same as arrest and confinement, Sheriff Jansen believes.

All Property Not Bargains

If you're going to buy some land we respectfully suggest that your purchase is in Lemon Grove or Spring Valley, where the values are real. . . at least by the new standard being set by hucksters who would have you buy acreage in Arizona, Utah or Hawaii sight unseen.

The Better Business Bureau has labeled 1962 as one of the great bonanza years for real estate salespeople who would sell desert wasteland, remote cabin sites and inaccessible ranches and other land deals to gullible prospects.

Some sales were developed by listing prospects as winners of a drawing. The winner had only to be obligated for "transfer fees" of the lot he had won. The "fees" were higher than the land's worth.

Other purchasers succumb to glowing advertisements in which property is likened to a Garden of Eden. The buyer then learns that the "bargain" he got in real estate is worth only a fraction of the price he paid. . . and that had he seen the property at first, he wouldn't have purchased it at all. But now he is stuck with it, taxes and all.

The Bureau continually warns inquirers against making a purchase "sight unseen" and emphasizes that many of the present offers are highly speculative.

The vast majority of real estate firms are reputable and reliable. To these legitimate real estate men and women who have bona fide land offers to make in the state being invaded by the fast buck promoters, the competition from the latter is not only unfair but destructive of public confidence in this highly important profession.

Triple Taxation Comes On Tires

How much sales tax do you pay if you trade in your old tire on a new one? We'll bet you don't know. Don't worry about it for few people know the formula for what should be an uncomplicated exercise in arithmetic.

The State Board of Equalization, the final authority in all things arithmetical that apply to your expense-of-living funds sent out instructions last week on how the tax is applied.

They remind that there is only one price on which the state sales tax may be computed. That is the "agreed sales price which includes manufacturer's federal excise tax and from which the trade-in allowance has not yet been deducted." For those who are not hep on federal excise taxes, the rate on tires is 5%.

Let's assume the deal is for a $10 tire. Then the formula would be:

Advertised net price of tire	$10.00
Federal Manufacturer's Excise Tax	.50
Agreed Trade-In Allowance	1.50
Price of tire	12.00
4% Sales tax on $12.00	.48
Total	12.48
Less trade-in	1.50

Cash needed to complete transaction $10.98

Here is a remarkable example of triple taxation. State tax (1) is applied to the federal excise tax. This is unethical and unfair. Then the tax (2) is applied to your trade-in. . . on which you paid fully the sales tax when you purchased it. This, too, is unethical and unfair. The dealer will be required to charge full sales tax (3) on your trade-in when he recovers it and sells it again. . . maybe to you.

We expect no uprising against the tax but the public should retain as part of his store of knowledge the places where overburdening taxes are being applied.

LOCAL GIRLS THRIVING ON THEIR LIFE IN MEXICO

AT PUEBLA — These Lemon Grove-Spring Valley girls are in Puebla, Mex., going to school to learn the ways and customs of our Latin neighbors. This picture was taken as they waited with luggage for their Mexican families to come pick them up at the Las Estrellas de Oro station where their bus had arrived early in the summer. From left to right are Carol McMain, Mary Carol Herman, Merrie Ledsinger, Sandie Hodges, Sharon McConnell and Jane Hook. Language departments at their schools arranged for their stay in Mexico.

man, Merrie Ledsinger, Sharon McConnell and Monarch Carol McMain are to return home in late August. Until then they are having a "language student's delight" and experiencing an unusual vacation besides.

The girls got to witness the arrival of President J. F. Kennedy in Mexico when a spectacular south-of-the-border welcome was given the president of the United States. Wrote Sandie to her mother: "In the words of an airport official I met, 'Never before has anyone been accepted with such great enthusiasm. To describe it briefly, I would say stupendous, fabulous.'"

DREAMS LEAVING
Sandie is living with the family of the ex-governor of Puebla during her stay. She told her mother on the phone that she is dreading the moment of parting from her Mexican friends because "they have all been so wonderful and we may never see each other again."

Mrs. Hodges said she believes that the experience is one her daughter and the other girls will remember for a long, long time. "Not just the daily sessions at school will be remembered," Mrs. Hodges said, "but also the social life and customs that the girls are encountering."

TEACHING "TWIST"
The girls are not just learning but teaching also. Mrs. Hodges said. Pueblans are fascinated by the "twist" dance and the girls always are in demand to teach others the dance when parties are held.

Sandie told of an experience riding in a Mexican car. "I almost died of shock," she told her mother, "when I happened to glance at the speedometer and saw that it registered 140. Later I found out this was kilometers. I guess it hadn't seemed like we were traveling 140 miles per hour."

Safety For Postal Employees Is Plea

The Post Office Department is embarking on a month-long accident-free campaign starting Saturday, the regional office in San Francisco office reported. The public can help reduce on-the-job and postal accidents in five ways, the Department suggested.

1. Advise the local postmaster of any unsafe roads or conditions pertaining to the post office.
2. Clear steps and areas near mail boxes.
3. Confine dogs to prevent attack on carriers.
4. Encouraging postal employees to think of safety by asking questions of them about it.
5. Reporting to the postmaster acts of driving courtesy among post office employees.

This region suffers about 105 disabling injuries and 200 motor car accidents a month among its 53,000 employees. The region operates more than 6,000 motor vehicles.
